Numb. 3963.

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, July 7. 1714.

Cadix, June 11. 1714.

'THE French not only Trade from 'France to the Spanish West-Indies, but send their Ships hither, 'and take in such Goods that 'France does not afford. Two or 'three Days ago was dispatched one very rich; 'they kept it a Secret where bound, but by the 'Cargo it is concluded for the Vera Crux: All 'the English Goods (we hear) they have bought, 'was 60 Pieces of Serges, and we believe she car'ried to the Value of 400000 Pieces of Eight.

'P. S. 'The Richmond, Captain Mackphedris, 'is going to New-England, to order the building 'of 20 Men of War for this King; from thence he 'goes to Holland, to buy what is necessary there 'for fitting them.

Cadix, June 14. 'A Ship is returned from the 'West-Indies with Spanish Colours, dispatched 'from hence by French, so they Trade as they 'please. This Ship brings Advice, that about 26 'Sail of French are in the South-Sea, and a great 'many on the Coast of Cartagena and Porto Velo, 'so that the Trade from Spain to the Kingdom of 'Peru is lost, and the Spaniards seem to have but 'a Part of that to Mexico.

Hague, July 11. 'The States General have 'caused to be communicated to Baron Heems, 'their Answer to the Project which he delivered 'to their Deputies some Days ago, touching the 'Barrier to be regulated with this State. It ap'pears more and more, that this Affair will take 'up much time before it be intirely adjusted. 'Tis said there are 5 Towns in Nomination for 'the negociating of this Treaty, viz. Vienna, the 'Hague, Brussels, Francfort, and Cologne; and 'that one of the two last is like to be chosen; 'the States not being willing to have it treated 'at Vienna, being his Imperial Majesty has re'fused to have it done at the Hague, and Prince 'Eugene is against its being treated at Brussels. 'In the mean while the Emperour has already ex'plained himself, 'tis said, that he is willing the States 'should have Garrisons in Namur, Tournay, and 'Menin; but as to Mons, he reserves it absolute'ly for a Garrison of his own, alledging among 'other Reasons, that without it the Governour 'General of the Spanish Netherlands would not 'be safe in his Bed at Brussels. Our Treaty of 'Peace with Spain is not yet published, nor is it 'thought it will be, till after the Ratification. 'The States have actually ordered 6 Ships of 'War to be fitted out, to serve for Convoys for 'the Ships of their Subjects trading to the Baltick, 'against the Insults of the Swedes, who continue 'to seize all the Ships they meet with in that Sea, 'under Pretext that they traffick with their grand 'Enemy, and that otherwise he would not have 'been able to set out a Fleet to Sea to face theirs. 'The Czar, with his Fleet, got safe from Peterbourg 'to Revel, and having joyned there five Ships 'of his of the Line, is put to Sea again. He ex'pects to be joyned still by 6 Danish Men of 'War and 3 of his own; and seems determined 'to seek and fight the Swedes; so that we ex'pect to hear soon of an Engagement between 'them. His Czarian Majesty has published an Or'dinance for preventing hereafter all Troubles a'bout the Succession to his Dominions, according 'to which Ordinance or Regulation the Princesses of 'the Blood are to Succeed to the Imperial Crown 'of Russia, in case the Male Descendants should 'fail. Letters from Berlin advise, that Baron 'Spaar was returned thither from Hambourg, 'that what was said in the former Advices of his be'ing arrived at Basil was a Mistake, his Name 'being put instead of that of his Collegue M. 'Engelbrecht, but finding nothing to be done at 'that Court, he was preparing to go to Vienna 'and thence to Baden. When his Prussian Ma'jesty was on his Departure for Cleves, Colonel 'Turner, who is in the Service of the Landgrave 'of Hesse-Cassel, arrived Post, to desire his Ma'jesty to make a Tour to Cassel; and 'twas 'thought he would comply with that Request.
